

U.S. REPRESENTATIVES FROM ILLINOIS

115th Congress

In the November 2016 general election, Illinois voters elected 18 candidates to serve in the U.S. House of Representatives for two-year terms. Eleven Democratic and seven Republican U.S. Representatives were elected to serve in the 115th Congress.

Democrats picked up one congressional seat in the 2016 general election. Democrat Brad Schneider defeated Republican Rep. Robert Dold in the 10th Congressional District, reclaiming the seat he lost two years ago. This is the third election in a row that Schneider and Dold have battled for the seat. Dold lost the seat to Schneider in 2012 but won it in a 2014 rematch.

Incumbents held on to 16 Illinois congressional seats while newcomer Raja Krishnamoorthi (D) filled the 8th District seat vacated by Tammy Duckworth, who was elected to the U.S. Senate.

The 115th Congress serves from Jan. 3, 2017, to Jan. 3, 2019.
